

Marysville

In 1880 there was news about Marysville being a mining town and how there was gold. Many people started coming to Marysville to find gold. Once the gold was discovered Marysville's population grew to 3,000 people. The mine ended up making $50,000,000.

The finder of Marysville was Thomas Cruse. Thomas Cruse discovered gold in the place and decided to make it a town. He got to name the town and became the owner and founder of Marysville.

Marysville is a town that was founded by Thomas Cruse and became a gold mining town. Because of the gold Marysville ended up having a population of 3,000 people.

Marysville was discovered in 1876 by Thomas Cruse. Thomas Cruse then decided to make it a town and named it Marysville. Now Marysville is home to people to this very day. Once the gold died down people then ended up leaving.

Marysville was discovered in Montana in 1876. The founder was Thomas Cruse. Thomas Cruse found gold and decided to make it a town. The population today is 80 people. So Marysville is not at all a Ghost town. But it is a mining town.

Marysville became a town in 1876 because of all the gold. Thomas Cruse decided it would make a great mining town. Marysville ended up having a population of 3,000. But today it only has a population of 80 people. It stopped being a big town once the gold died down.

Marysville now only has a population of 80 people. Ever since there was no more gold the mining stopped and people left. Once people left it then became abandoned. Until soon after more people found it and it is now a town to 80 people 80 whole people I know crazy right.

I guess you can say Marysville is not considered a ghost town. But it sure is an old mining town that once had a population of 4,000 people. That all started because of Thomas Cruse finding gold and deciding to make it a town. Marysville is now one of the top Montana mining towns.
