

CHAPTER 3 / The Five Themes of Geography

The Five Themes of Geography are:

Location: Where is it?

Place: What is it like there?

Movement: How are people, goods, and ideas connected?

Human Environmental Interaction: How do people interact with the environment?

Region: What characteristic(s) unify the area?

Using information from the chapter, choose one tribe and describe their society and culture in terms of the Five Themes of Geography.

Tribe: Shashone

Location: Southwest of Montana

Place: Bitterroot Valley

Movement: There movement was to hunt

Human Environmental Interaction: They interacted with Lewis and Clark and other tribes

Region: Bitterroot valleys
